La Sylphide

With the Atlanta Ballet Orchestra
September 15–17, 2023

Choreography by August Bournonville Production and additional choreography by Johan Kobborg

A beloved masterpiece, La Sylphide contains all the elements of Romantic ballet: a dark setting enshrouded in mist, a melodramatic love story doomed by a mysterious enchantment, and ethereal women in white. The famously specific Bournonville style provides joyful high points in the tragic story of a Scottish nobleman who finds himself in love with a sylph — a fairy-like spirit who is not of his world. Based on the original 1836 Royal Danish Ballet production, La Sylphide is one of the oldest surviving masterworks of classical ballet.

A new full-length ballet
Choreography by Annabelle Ochoa Lopez

Acclaimed choreographer Annabelle Lopez Ochoa's original full-length narrative ballet will delve into the complex life of one of the 20th century's most intriguing fashion icons. Chanel's almost mythical rags-to-riches and often controversial story comes to life in this North American premiere. Coco Chanel: The Life of a Fashion Icon brings together an award-winning creative team, with artistic collaboration by Nancy Meckler, original score by Peter Salem, and set and costume design by Jérôme Kaplan.

Launched in Hong Kong to rave reviews, Coco Chanel: The Life of a Fashion Icon played to sold-out crowds. Co-produced with Hong Kong Ballet and Queensland Ballet.
